BALTIMORE, Oct. 5.—The Orioles took their third straight game in the temple cup series from the Spiders this afternoon by dint of brilliant playing, both at the bat and in the field, together with a bit of good luck here and there. The price of admission was reduced to the old time scale, but the attendance was not materially increased thereby, although the weather was perfect and other conditions all that could be wished for. Many reasons are assigned for the light attendance during the series in Baltimore, but the best is probable that Baltimoreans have had a surfeit of base ball in the past two months, and "Temple cup" games are no new things here, hence do not attract more than would an ordinary contest.

The actual attendance was not announced today, but it was about 6,000. The Cleveland men are woefully put out at the result and the Baltimore contingent look very gloomy. When they talk about it, all hands leave for home to-morrow and the Orioles say there will be but one game in the Forest City, which they expect to win and thereby settle the contest for the trophy. C., Oct. 5.—Washington entered the list of national circuit bicycle cities to-day and upwards of 5,000 persons saw the pick of the season's cracks struggle for the title of champion of 1896. No records were broken in any day of the races. The results of to-day's races gives Eddie Held the championship for the season of 1896, yet the laurel wreath grazed the head of Tom Cooper by just two points.

No finer or more complete store was ever opened in West Virginia, and it is a wonderful establishment, and is well worth anybody's time to go through. The stores have been beautifully decorated and adorned for the occasion and the bright colors of the goods are artistically blended and set off by numerous potted plants.

MORE THAN 75 PER CENT.

This is the Proportion of People Suffering From Dyspepsia.

"I am told," says a writer in the New York World, "that more than 75 per cent of the people in these United States are afflicted with dyspepsia and other stomach troubles."

If that is the case then the other 25 per cent ought to be exceedingly happy, for a more miserable being than a dyspeptic it is hard to find. Dyspeptic men and women get little enjoyment out of life because they are always feeling blue and despondent. Stomach troubles make people have tired feelings, miserable dragged out sensations, and break down the whole system.

Now, if you are a dyspeptic or are afflicted with stomach troubles, do not imagine there is to hope for you. There is a way to regain health, strength, vitality and good digestion. Here are some interesting opinions on this important subject.

Mrs. Eveline Tarlton, 315 Park avenue, Cincinnati, O., says: "I had dyspepsia for 11 or 15 years and was entirely cured by taking Duffy's pure malt. I am convinced that this preparation cures where everything else fails. I recommend it to all sufferers from indigestion, dyspepsia, etc."

Volunteers could be filled with testimonials like the above, but it is sufficient to prove that for curing stomach troubles and all similar ailments Duffy's pure malt is unequalled. Every grocer and druggist keeps Duffy's pure malt, but it is important to guard against inferior imitations.

GLASS WORKERS' REDUCTION.

Union Men at Millville, N. J., Not in a Humor to Accept It.

MILLVILLE, N. J., Oct. 5.—The action of the Glass Manufacturing firm of Whitall, Tatum & Company, in offering to start their flint furnaces at a wage reduction of 20 per cent off the list rate, has created excitement in this locality such as has seldom been seen before. The threat of hiring non-union men if the old employees do not agree to the reduction had added fuel to the flame. This has always been a union town and the workmen employed in the great glass manufacturing plants do not know what to make of the present situation. The men will meet this afternoon and give their answer to-morrow.

Ben. V. Thomas, manager for Whitall, Tatum & Co., says the firm is unable to pay last year's list prices because of dull trade and a non-union competition, and they are therefore compelled to ask the men to accept a reduction.

About 1,200 men are employed at the Flint glass works and if an attempt is made to put non-union men in their places, trouble is feared. It is hoped that a compromise may be agreed upon.

MOUNDSVILLE

A Miscellaneous Mixture of Minor Matters from Marshall's Metropolis.

Mrs. Emma Moore Scott will leave to-morrow for New York City, from whence she will sail on Saturday on her way to India. Two weeks ago she decided to return to her much loved work in that foreign mission field after spending nearly three years with her aged mother, Mrs. S. E. Moore, in our city. Her son, Herbert, will accompany her. In the short time it has been since she has been in this country she has been a busy woman. Her work as organist and Sunday school teacher in the Methodist Episcopal church has been faithfully performed, and she returns with the earnest prayers of her many friends that her future life will even be more useful, if it can be made so. The members of the church choir with a number of other friends contributed and presented to her a magnificent gold watch, and guard to show their love and esteem in which she is held by them. The journey to India will require two months. Her mother, Mrs. Moore, will go with her as far as Kittingham, Pa., where she will spend the winter with a sister.

Rev. S. J. Cotton arrived late Saturday evening and filled his pulpit at the M. E. church on Sunday. The sickness in his family had so improved as to have enabled him to come on, which was more than he had expected to do, hence he sent the church books to be used in Saturday's service. He preached two very interesting sermons to large congregations. Rev. Cotton was at Charleston for five successive years and was very successful in his work there. He has been well received by the people here since he has been heard for the first time by his congregation. His family will not arrive here until next week.

The reduction in the subscription price of the Intelligencer yesterday to ten cents per week, delivered by carrier, was much appreciated by the old subscribers here, as well as by the many new ones who added their names to the local subscription list by reason of the reduction. Others who desire to subscribe can watch for the carriers in the mornings as they cover their routes, or to the agent, James A. Sigafos, if he fails to call on you.

The school board will meet in monthly session to-morrow evening at the office of the secretary. One new teacher is to be elected in the place of Miss Ida Barker, who has resigned on account of ill health. The school books to be used this year will also be adopted and preparations made for the opening of school soon after the new building is completed, which the contractors still hold they will have finished on time, by the 17th instant.

The family of Rev. G. W. Grimes will leave for Parkersburg, their home for this conference year on Thursday of this week. Rev. Grimes has been filling his appointment at that station for the past two Saturdays. Professor I. B. Wilson will remove from Western avenue and will occupy Rev. Grimes' residence on Fifth street.

BELLAIRE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip About the Glass City.

Congressman Danford, in obedience to a call from his constituents in various parts of Monroe county, goes to that part of the district to-day to spend this week. He has been in every part of the district and everywhere is greeted with the greatest enthusiasm.

His strength has always been among the plain people, with whom he mingled all his life and with whom he has always been a popular favorite. His election is assured, and yet he put on the harness early to help out the cause, and he responds to every call he possibly can and is booked now until the night before election. Old Monroe, with a steadily increasing class of thrifty farmers, is not this year going wild on the silver craze. They want no disturbance of business, and there has been a loud call for the old veteran of the Sixteenth Ohio district to rally the forces of sound money among the hills of that section. The Democrats see the tide drifting away from them as the light of truth breaks upon the minds of some of their followers, and they have looked their candidate, H. H. McFadden, for several meetings this week also. But while Capt. Danford will expound the truths of an honest dollar and point with pride to the great achievements of a sound currency, his opponent will tune his harp to the fallacies of the silver theorists, and can point to Mexico, China, Japan and India, doleful comparisons with the enlightened nations of the world, which have a substantial basis.

The oyster supper given by the Blackburn Cadets was largely attended last evening, and all were satisfied with the supper with which they were served. The Cadets gave a dress parade all over the city and did some fine drilling. A neat sum will be realized from the supper.

Norris Brothers' dog and pony show closed their season here Saturday in showing under canvas, and will remain in the city a week or so before starting on the road to show in opera houses.

Miss Mary Lyons, of Harnesville, is the guest of friends in the city.

George Hyatt left yesterday for Clarlington, where he will work.

T. T. Seals' campaign song was published in the Sunday World.

Henry Rolf, of Wheeling, is the guest of friends in the city.

Consumption kills more people than rifle balls. It is more deadly than any of the much dreaded epidemics. Fully one-sixth of all the deaths in America are caused by consumption. It is a stealthy, gradual, slow disease. It penetrates the whole body. It is in every drop of blood. It seems to work only at the lungs, but the terrible drain and waste go on all over the body. The only way to get rid of consumption is to work on the blood, make it pure, rich and wholesome, build up the wasting tissues, put the body into condition for a fight with the dread disease. The cure of consumption is a fight—a fight between sound tissues and the encroaching germs of disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery fights on the right side. It drives the germs back, forces them out of the body. It will cure 95 per cent. of all cases of consumption if it is taken during the early stages of the disease. Its first action is to put the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys into good working order. That makes digestion good and assimilation quick and thorough. It makes sound healthy flesh. That is half the battle.

When Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., published the first book of his work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, he announced that after 60,000 copies had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, the profit on which would be given for the great labor expended in producing it, he would distribute the next million free. As this number of copies has already been sold, he is now distributing, absolutely free, one-half of this great work, but twenty-one cents in one-cent stamps to pay postage and packing only being required. It is a valuable medical library, complete in one volume. It contains over two hundred and thirty illustrations. The free edition is precisely the same as those sold at $1.50 except only that the books are bound in strong paper covers instead of cloth. Send stamps now before all are given away. They are going off rapidly.
